Pentecost Sunday

Another Year 6 Tolkien book update!

A real range of quality literature read this week

A new story this week in Year 1

We are busy describing what is happening on the beach!

Reception released their butterflies on the top field.

I saw a butterfly and I saw it flutter by and it was AMAZING!

Sorting objects into equal groups in Maths.

Caring for seeds:
"Need water and sun!"

We're thinking about different relationships in our lives. In year 3 we became relationship detectives sorting into groups of family, friend & other. Thank you TenTen!

In 4DA we were converting units of capacity in Maths while using place value grids to help us.

LO: I can convert between different units of measurement

One chef only has jugs labelled in litres and millilitres. Complete the table below to help chefs by converting litres into millilitres.

some of them cried, as they sang for their lost sight.
We made so many journeys that day and stopped only when the hospital could take no more.
It was already a starry night by the time we reached the farm. The shelling had stopped. There were no flares to light up the sky and blot out the stars. All the way along the lane not a gun fired. Peace had come one night, one at least. The snow in the yard was wiped by the frost. There was a dancing light in our stable and Emilie's grandfather came out into the snow and took our reins from the orderly.
"It's a fine night," he said to us as he led us in. "It's a

Year 5 have been learning about angles.

How we recognise Jesus in each other in Year2.

A little peep into our 'active learning' in the Nursery.
"I'm making a rainbow!" "Washing up!" "I did it! Can I do another one?" "It's a house."

We have been busy creating story maps with a twist and developing our writing stamina. Everyone has come up with their own ending for the story 'Sharing a Shell'.

Year 2 writing poetry, holding a magic pebble that makes wishes come true.

"I wished our school was a swimming pool ..."

Taking turns, playing skittles and tallying our scores.

"I knocked down Five!"

Another great cricket session in year 3 this morning.

Teamwork was really important.

*'I enjoyed it because there was lots of running around'
'I liked learning a new game'.*

Our new art project in Year 5 is centred around listening to the needs of Stevenage- great start!

Great cricket
Lesson in Year 5

Looking at FALSE FRIENDS in French in Y4

We used Bilingual dictionaries to find out what words that looked familiar in French actually mean in English ... and then we found out how the similar word was actually said in French

Le car is coach and a car is la voiture;
le raisin = grapes and "raisin sec" are what they call raisins. Check out la cave!

Year 3 enjoyed reading Ottoline and the Yellow Cat in English lessons and are now excited to start writing their own Ottoline story. #stvdepENG

THE GOSPEL IN CHURCH

Sunday 23rd May 2021

In the evening, the disciples were gathered in a room. They had locked the doors because they were afraid of the people who had crucified Jesus. Jesus came and stood among them. "Peace be with you," he said to them. He showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord. "Peace be with you," Jesus said to them again. "As the Father has sent me, so I now send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them. "Receive the Holy Spirit," he said to them. "If you forgive the sins of anyone, then they are forgiven. If you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

Adapted from John 20:19-23
Pentecost Sunday, Year B

You are warmly invited to learn more about the Gospel through your local parish church.

"Let us pray for peace: peace in the world and in each of our hearts. We can all be builders of peace."

Pope Francis

Please read and reflect upon today's gospel together on the Feast of Pentecost.

PEACE

SCRIPTURE

Jesus came and stood among them.
“Peace be with you,” he said to them.
“As the Father has sent me, so I now send you.”
Then he breathed on them and said,
“Receive the Holy Spirit”

TEACHING

The peace that Jesus promises to those who love him is an inner peace which comes from following him and knowing deep within ourselves that we are loved by God.
Through his life, death and resurrection, Jesus won this peace for us.

WORSHIP

Dear Lord Jesus,
Thank you for our special times together.
Please help us to know your perfect peace and to share that peace with those around us.

Amen

LIFE

“Let’s promote friendship and respect between men and women of different religious traditions in order to build a world of peace.”

Pope Francis

“The family is the first and foremost teacher of peace.”

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI
