Reporting

Throughout the year, key updates and information are regularly shared with the school governors to keep them fully informed about the school's progress and management.

The Subject Lead, Roger Jennings, provides subject-specific information such as student performance and progress within their subject area, curriculum changes and initiatives, assessment results, and professional development updates. These are generally shared half termly to the headteacher.

The School Business Manager, Mrs Lorimer, provides budget reports and updates to the Headteacher and Governors.

The Headteacher, Mrs Whitty, shares updates on school performance and progress data, curriculum developments, safeguarding, strategic school improvement plans, and finance information to Governors. These updates are usually provided half-termly to Governors.

As of September 2025, all information will be shared with The Diocese of Westminster Academy Trust

All relevant information and data were submitted to the Department for Education (DfE) on 23rd July 2025, ensuring compliance with statutory reporting requirements
